

AVERT Syndrome Validation

Process as of June 16th, 2025

The following workflow describes the process of taking our SQL translated CDC syndrome definitions and conducting a validation report on how well it works. The process aims to adjust key terms the definition to fit the needs in the Georgia state syndromic system as well as document those specific changes.

